

MS KINESIOLOGY @ SDSU

FAQ: INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

1

APPLICATION OVERVIEW

International applicants follow the same application process as all M.S. Kinesiology applicants, with a few additional requirements.

You'll need to:

- Apply through Cal State Apply
- Meet SDSU Graduate Admissions Requirements
- Submit additional international admission documents, if required
- Demonstrate English proficiency

2

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

You must submit proof of English proficiency by December 15, 2026.

Accepted documentation includes:

- TOEFL
- IELTS
- PTE
- Official transcripts showing English as the primary language of instruction

3

PREPARE YOUR APPLICATION

You will need:

-  Academic transcripts
-  English-language exam scores (or test dates)
-  $70 USD application fee
- Review SDSU's Graduate: Requirements by Country
- Submit any country-specific academic records

4

AFTER YOU APPLY

Graduate Admissions will review your documents.

- Processing typically takes at least 3 weeks
- Track your application through my.SDSU
- Submit your documents only once to avoid delays.

5

KNOW THE USCIS RULES

International students studying on an F-1 visa are responsible for understanding and following current U.S. immigration requirements throughout their program.

Key responsibilities include:

-  Maintain full-time enrollment
-  Keep your passport and Form I-20 valid and up to date
-  Follow employment regulations, including rules for on-campus employment
-  Immigration policies may change over time. Always verify the latest requirements.

For the most current information, visit USCIS and SDSU International Student Center